University of Hertfordshire UH

Focused Observation of Practice (FoP): Behaviour Management

Comments: these can be things that you notice and questions you would like to ask to find out more

Reflections: If you can, please discus your questions and comments with the teacher that you have observed

N.B. If being used by a student teacher to observe a lesson, we suggest you focus on only 2-3 of the areas listed below.

Teacher's Name/Subject..... Class/Set..... Date/Time.....

	COMMENTS/QUESTIONS
Being a positive role model to all How is the teacher creating a culture of mutual respect during the lesson? • What language/phrases are being used and to whom? • How is body language and voice used and to whom? • How is mutual respect being promoted between teacher and individual pupil? • How is diversity of identity/culture/language/knowledge valued? Creating a positive learning environment • What routines has the teacher established with the class to create a safe, predictable learning environment? How are these being reinforced during the lesson i.e. positive reinforcement or using sanctions? • How is consistency of language and non-verbal cues used to communicate classroom instructions? Building positive relationships with students • How is the teacher regulating their own emotional and behavioural responses to situations? • How is the teacher acknowledging pupils' emotional and behavioural responses to situations? • How is the teacher sustaining teacher-pupil and/or pupil-pupil mutual respect? • How does the teacher support pupils in the moment who need additional support? • How is the teacher involving parents/carers/colleagues to embed high academic and behavioural pupil expectations? High expectations and motivation to learn • How and when during the lesson does the teacher establish their expectations? • How does the teacher encourage effort and perseverance? How do pupils respond? • What language is used to promote challenge and aspiration? How do pupils respond? • Are opportunities given for pupils to talk about their learning and share their successes? How do they know what success looks like for them? • How are pupils being motivated to work intrinsically and/or extrinsically? Embedding high behavioural expectations • How does the teacher use non-verbal control mechanisms to establish a positive learning environment e.g. seating plan, eye contact, scanning the room, hand gestures, signalling for attention, etc.? • How does the teacher use verbal control mechanisms to establish a positive learning environment e.g. short/longer verbal reprimands, discussions with individuals about behaviour at end of lesson, use of pupil's name, etc.? • How does the teacher use formal sanctions and rewards to embed their high expectations? e.g. extra duties, written warning, detention, removal, names on board, note in diary, referral to senior teacher, report cards, reward/sanction points, commendations, contact with parents, etc.

University of Hertfordshire UH

REFLECTIONS AND NEXT STEPS

What was successful about how behaviour management was used within the lesson and why?

-
-

How will you use this observation to help you with your planning and teaching?

-
-